Discover Atlanta

You'll find average temperatures in the 70s as you explore this sophisticated Southern city. Scientifically and technically advanced, Atlanta is home to many Fortune 500 companies as well as interesting neighborhoods and architecture, both historical and contemporary.

A Compelling History

Explore Civil War days with a visit to Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park, a major battle site, or see the large collection of Civil War memorabilia at the Atlanta History Center. Atlanta's role in the struggle for civil and human rights comes alive at the 35-acre Martin Luther King, Jr., National Historic Site and at the Carter Center.

Unique Entertainment and Shopping

Visit Underground Atlanta, an historic entertainment and shopping district, literally beneath downtown, or explore the upscale Buckhead or quirky Decatur neighborhoods. The Georgia Aquarium and the CNN Studio Tour are also major attractions.

Active Theater and Arts Scene

Atlanta is home to more than 65 performing groups, with offerings ranging from Broadway musicals to improvisation, at theaters including the ornate Fox Theatre. For visual arts, the Atlanta Celebrates Photography festival will hold events around the city in October, and the renowned High Museum is a favorite.
